

Research August 2016 in Kirrweiler, Rhineland-Palatinate for
Elisabeth Hartmann, born 1852

What did we know?

Elisabeth Hartmann was born around 1852 in Kirrweiler, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany. Her father's name was Michael Hartmann and mother's was Catharina Koch. The clients had sent us a photo of a chapel which they wanted to find, it couldn't be found on the internet.

What did we find?

We found gg-cousins who own a wine-estate. We arranged a meeting at the winery and our clients got a warm welcome. Of course coming along with some wine-tasting....
After a walk through the old part of the little town Kirrweiler we drove to the Chapel of St. Anna – which we reached over a quite challenging forest path.

What had impressed us most?

We just share our client's mail...

*Hi Marion,
I sent you an email when we returned from Germany but I don't think you received it, so I am trying it again! Kathy and I had such a wonderful time in the Frankfurt area, but the highlight of the trip was our day spent with you in Kirrweiler and Burrweiler. It is a day we will cherish forever in our memories and through the photographs we took along the way. Here is the photo of my painting that started us on our journey with you. Please, feel free to use it in your advertising for your ancestry research. Do you need any other photos we took that day? Again, we can't thank you enough for such a special, meaningful experience!*

*Fondly,
Carol W.
